

"He Prayeth Best Who Loveth Most."

He prayeth best who loveth most,
Because he feels the want,
Of higher power, of loftier guard,
Than any he can vaunt.

He sees the need of tender care
To keep his loved ones safe;
And knows upon life's battle field
He's but a passing wait.

His heart goes up in lofty prayer
To God, his Father—Friend—
Because he knows that life is brief—
This day may be its end;

And then on whom can he depend
To watch with loving care
His weeping children—stricken wife?
He sees the need of prayer.

His eyes look upward to the throne
Whence God sends angels down,
And humbly asks a blessing then
His life's success to crown.

He knows the bitterness of life—
Its dark side and its fair,
And bends his knee and bows his head,
In all-absorbing prayer.

He has so much to pray for,
So many goods to seek,
The moments seem not long enough
Throughout the busy week.

The love within him teaches
That God alone has power
To guard his life, to keep his love
Through every varying hour.

Sunday Reading.

A friend is never known till needed.
Sorrow's best antidote is employment.
It is better to do well than say well.
It is no small conquest to overcome self.

A man's life is an appendix to his heart.
Ill examples are like contagious diseases.
Idleness is the sepulchre of a living man.

If you wish a thing done, go; if not, send.
If the counsel be good, no matter who gave it.
Imitate a good man, but never counterfeit him.

Religion is not an art, a matter of dexterity and skill but a new nature.
God sits upon his mercy seat, and will pardon and save all who approach Him aright.

He that overcometh shall inherit all things, and I will be his God and he shall be my son.
To have a good opinion of yourself think, if you were rich, how much you would give away.

Death may remove from us the great and good, but the force of their actions still remains.
Most of the shadows that cross our path through life are caused by our standing in our own light.

Deliberate with caution, but act with decision; and yield with graciousness or oppose with firmness.
The Christian's privilege is the prayer of the apostle: "That ye may be filled with all the fullness of God."

Nature is a book of sweet and glowing purity, and on every illuminated page the excellence and goodness of God are divinely portrayed.
Engage not hastily, as a party, in a quarrel between others, but reserve thyself impartial and unengaged, that thou mayest be moderate between them.

Value no man for his opinion, but esteem according to his life corresponds with the rules of piety and justice. A man's actions, not his conceptions, render him valuable.
Grace never appears to be grace, until sin appears to be sin. The deeper the sense of the evil of sin, the deeper our apprehension of the free-grace of God in Christ will be.

Holy fear is the doorkeeper of the soul. As a nobleman's porter stands at the door and keeps out vagrants, so the fear of God stands and keeps all sinful temptations from entering.
The depths of the soul are a labyrinth, and dark without the touch of religion. Left to ourselves, we are like subterranean water—we reflect only the gloomy vault of religious destiny.

Every man has in his own life, folies enough—in his own mind troubles enough—in the performance of his duties, difficulties enough—without being over curious about the affairs of others.
By a man's words and expressions you may know him. Each man has his measure for everything. This he unguardedly offers you in his words. He who has a superlative for everything, has no measure for the great or small.

God's word is like God's world—varied, very rich and very beautiful. You never know when you have exhausted all its deep secrets. The bible, like the book of nature, has something for every class of mind. Look at the bible in a new light and straightway you see some new charas.

Some of you who read this are not Christians; but you are free to express your opinion as to what a Christian ought to be: He ought to honor his profession by being, first of all, an honest man in his dealings with men. Then he ought to be generous, public spirited, and abounding in charities. He ought to be every man's friend and no man's enemy.

Facts and Fancies.

What is to be? Why, a verb.
A spring bed—a bed of radishes.
Honesty is the best policy, some poets.
A lonesome place—A pawnbrokers office.

A short trip—Slipping on an orange peel in the street.
A thing sometimes brought to pass—A counterfeit note.

When is better like Irish children? When it is made into little "pats."
If thine enemy wrong thee, buy each of his children a new drum.

What two colors are indiscriminate? Invisible green and blind-man's buff.
The mosquito, as a public singer draws well, but never gives satisfaction.

When is a lady's hair like news? When its found in the morning papers.
In a game of cards, a good deal depends on good playing, and good playing on a good deal.

Pistoloids and laudnumation are the latest sort of obituary coined by the genial paragrapher.
Why is a large carpet like the late rebellion? Because it took such a lot of tax to put it down.

The storm-signal man on the top of Mount Washington holds the "highest office in the gift of the nation."
Why is a horse the most curious feeder in the world? Because he eats best when he has not a bit in his mouth.

"Oh you're a jewel," she said, accepting a seat. "No I'm a jeweler, I have just set the jewel," replied he.
Achilles put on his armor and flaxed the whole posse of them," according to a rural New York lecturer on the "H-tad."

A young lady went into a music shop, and asked the clerk if he had "Loving Eyes." He replied, "I'm told so by the girls."

A Western writer describes a Dolly Varden dress as an animated old-fashioned window curtain thrown over a red wall.

A greener had a pound of sugar returned to him with a note stating, "too much sand for table use, and not enough for building purposes."

A judge sentencing a prisoner to be hung, said he hoped it would prove a warning to him. It did—the chap hasn't committed a crime since.

A female lecturer has discovered that "The grand epic of the coming poet will throb with the pulse of the cosmos." And yet she is not happy.

A citizen of Seacombe chased a striped cat out of his hen house the other day. He burned his clothes, and his wife went visiting the next day.

A party of gypsies were in Danbury recently. The News says: "These people appear to think a good deal of their native land; they carry it around with them."

What is the difference between a suspended bank and a railway train? In one case the brake causes the stoppage; and in the other the stoppage causes the break.

"Why is there no cream on this milk George?" said an under-graduate to the "scout," at Cambridge. "Stir it up sir," was the reply. "It sinks to the bottom."

The editor of the Grand Rapids Democrat headed a political article "Stirring up the Old Fool." The ever intelligent type converted it into "String up the Old Fool."

A man who sailed around the world and carried a Philadelphia newspaper in his pocket, said it was the most widely circulated journal in America.

The Boston Journal asks, "can the gnat swallow the camel?" It seems so. A good many years ago, in a contest for the Speakership of Congress, Nat. Banks swallowed Lew. Campbell, of Ohio.—Peoria Transcript.

It is said that Horace Greeley wearied with editorial labors, and disgusted with his political wrangles, seriously talks of buying a sheep farm in Colorado, and retiring there for rest. Horace will probably commence improving his stock with a hydraulic ram.

We know a pious young lady who was tempted the other day to put on her Dolly Varden—red floss rhinoceroses rooting up a black satin morass—when going to church. But the noble girl withstood the temptation remarking "Get thee behind me Satan."

One of the "cheekiest" things we have seen, is that of a prominent manufacturing concern having a contract at Auburn State Prison, who display on their letter and billheading a handsome engraving of the imposing institution, with its surroundings, over the words "Our Factory at Auburn."

The Mail says: "We sometimes believe that mosquitoes torment us poor mortals out of sheer spite and malice, and not because it does them any good. A Kentucky man of an inquiring turn of mind has kept two of these blood-thirsty insects under an inverted tumbler for six months, and they have not lost flesh nor declined in vigor, which proves that they have no occasion whatever to disturb our slumbers and gorge themselves with the best blood of our people."

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT PORTLAND, MARCH 20TH, 1872.

The Union Republican party of Oregon, in Convention, makes this declaration of its principles and policies:

1. To the Constitution of the United States and all its amendments we pledge our unflinching allegiance; to its authority a willing obedience; to its full and legal construction and enforcement our constant support.

2. That the success of the present National Administration in reducing the public debt, diminishing and equalizing taxation, administering every branch of public affairs with economy and efficiency, forming and improving the civil service, enforcing the laws without fear or favor, protecting the nation's wards with parental care against the cruel avarice of speculation and fraud, and maintaining friendly relations with Foreign Powers, has been such as to command the approbation of the great majority of the American people, and justly entitle it to the confidence and commendation of every true Republican.

3. We regard the payment of the national debt, in full compliance with all legal obligations to our creditors everywhere, and in accordance with the true letter and spirit of its contracting, as no longer a question in issue; but that we may be clearly understood, we denounce all forms and degrees of repudiation of that debt, as affirmed by the Democratic party and its sympathizers, as not only national calamities, but positive crimes, and we will never consent to a suspension of honor or justice in its complete satisfaction.

4. We admit of no distinctions between citizens, whether of native or foreign birth; and therefore we favor the granting of full amnesty to the people of those States lately in rebellion; and we here pledge the full and effective protection of our civil laws to all persons voluntarily coming to or residing in our land.

5. We favor the encouragement of railroads by the General Government of the United States, and hold that such disposition should be made of the public lands as shall secure the same to actual settlers only, in quantities not exceeding 160 acres.

6. That while we are in favor of a revenue for the support of the General Government, by duties upon imports, sound policy requires such adjustment of those duties on imports as to encourage the development of the industrial interests of the whole country; and we recommend that policy of national exchange which secures to the working men liberal wages; to agriculture remunerative prices; to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill, labor and enterprise, and to the Nation commercial prosperity and independence.

7. We believe that popular education is the sole true basis and hope of a free government, and shall ever oppose any diversion of, or interference with the common school funds or lands in this State, for any other than their legitimate purpose, and we condemn the act of favoritism by the last Legislature whereby two hundred thousand dollars, taken from the school fund, were granted to a corporation consisting mainly of Democratic leaders and party favorites, for the construction of a work which another corporation, entirely sound and responsible, offered to construct for seventy-five thousand dollars less; and that we are in favor of the passage by the Legislature of an efficient school law, such as shall secure to all citizens of our State a good common school education.

8. We find no terms sufficiently strong to express our disapproval of those acts of the last Legislature whereby the swamp lands belonging to the State have been taken from the needy settlers and given without limit or proper competition in price to the land grabber and speculator; whereby the emoluments and salaries of State officers have been unconstitutionally increased, and the taxes increased thousands of dollars by the creation of new and unnecessary offices and salaries, for the purpose of providing for party favorites; and whereby the citizens of our metropolis have been deprived of and denied the right of controlling their police authority. And we equally condemn the administration of our State officers and laws as extravagant, reckless, illegal and destructive, and we rightly charge all these results as the acts of the Democratic party.

9. We are in favor of the United States giving to each honorably discharged soldier who served in the armies of the United States to put down the rebellion a warrant for a homestead of 160 acres.

10. That we demand the repeal of the so-called litigant act, which was devised to support pauper Democratic newspapers at the public expense.

11. That the Republican party of this State are in favor of the General Government extending aid toward building a railroad from Portland, Oregon, to Salt Lake City, and we hereby pledge our party representatives to the support of the same.

12. That the indiscriminate licensing of persons to sell spirituous liquors without being placed under proper responsibilities for the abuse thereof, having been found by experience to promote the growth of crime and pauperism, and thereby to seriously increase the rate of taxation, the Republican party recognize the right and duty of the law making power to prevent and limit the evils and abuses of such sale, so far as concerns the public good and is consistent with individual liberty, by refusing to license other than law-abiding and responsible persons, who can furnish sufficient sureties for good conduct.

13. That the Republican party of Oregon is in favor of obtaining assistance from the General Government for the construction of a wagon road from the city of Portland to the Dalles, recognizing this as a most important and necessary improvement for the State.

14. We affirm that the continuance in power of the Republican party is the only sure preservation of national peace and prosperity, and for reasons thereof we point to its brilliant record in the late civil war; to a complete nationality; to a united sisterhood of thirty-seven States; to our Territories rapidly warming into State life; to a nation freed from the taint of human slavery; to an elevated and enlarged citizenship; to our national standing at home and abroad; to the work of vigorous reform in all discovered abuses of authority or trust; to an unequalled financial system, and to the unparalleled peace and prosperity everywhere in our broad domain, and these are our pledges for the future.

15. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

16. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

17. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

18. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

19. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

20. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

21. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

22. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

23. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

24. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

25. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

26. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

27. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

28. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

29. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

30. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

31. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

32. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

33. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

34. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

35. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

36. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

37. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

38. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

39. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

40. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

41. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

42. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

43. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

44. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

45. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

46. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

47. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

48. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

49. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their Convention in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years; and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

PIONEER TIN AND STOVE STORE,

Front Street, one Door South of Post Office.

Dallas - - - - - Oregon.

KNOWING THERE IS A MARKED difference between articles of TINWARE manufactured by me, and that made by manufacturers in Portland and other large cities, for shipment, I have on hand both my own make and also that of factory make, so that people may take their choice. My stock consists in part, of

Stoves of all kinds,
Copper, Brass and Iron Ware,
Wire work of all descriptions,
Sheet and Galvanized Iron,
Stove Boilers, Tea Kettles,
Milk Pans, Dippers,
Lard and Butter Cans,
Egg Beaters,

Japanned Ware a general Assortment,
Cooking Spoons, A variety of Gem Pans,
Porcelain lined Stew Pans for Fruit,
Broiling Fixtures of New and the Most Improved Patterns,

And in fact everything that can be found in a first class Tin and Stove Store.

Job Work
Neatly Done and Promptly Attended to.
50-41 T. B. NEWMAN.

New Goods! New Goods!!
FOR THE PRESENT SEASON!

We respectfully call the attention of the Public to our Well Selected Stock of

Ladies' Dress Goods,
Ladies' and Misses' Hats,
Gents' Furnishing Goods,
Cloves, Gaiters, Etc.

Hardware,
Groceries,
School Books,
Stationery, &c.,

In fact Everything Found in a First Class Retail Store.

We can assure our Patrons that we will be up with the times.
Come and Examine our Stock before purchasing elsewhere.

Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods!
Dallas, April 22, 1871. N. A. J. D. LEE 1-4

CHEAP! CHEAP!!
Cheaper than Ever!!!
BOLTER, WORTLEY & CO.,
ELLENDALE STORE,

Have removed their STOCK OF GOODS to Dallas, and are constantly receiving NEW and WELL SELECTED GOODS, consisting of

Ladies' Dress and Fancy Goods,
Men and Boys' Clothing,
Hats and Caps,
Boots and Shoes,

Ladies' and Children's Shoes of every Style and Size.

A full Stock of Groceries constantly on hand, also Hardware and Crockery.

Woolen Goods Manufactured at the Ellendale Mill, such as Beavers, Cassimeres, Hard Times, Tweeds, Flannels and Blankets.

Having a desire to locate permanently in Dallas, we will deal fairly and justly with all who may favor us with their patronage. We will exchange Goods for Country Produce, for which we will pay the Highest Price.

Bring on your Eggs and Butter.
3-17

WISTAR'S BALSAM
OF
WILD CHERRY

The standard remedy for Coughs, Influenza, Sore Throat, Whooping Cough, Croup, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Bleeding of the Lungs, and every affection of the Throat, Lungs and Chest, including Consumption.

Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, but loosens it, cleanses the Lungs, allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint. None genuine unless signed L. B. WISTAR, Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & SON, Boston.

Sold by REDDINGTON, HOSTETTER & CO., San Francisco, and by dealers generally. 16-15

SADDLE TREES.
C. H. COX

Has on hand and for Sale, SADDLE TREES of all sizes and the best quality. Shop near Wayne's Mill, Dallas, Oregon. 4317

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY.—$500 reward for an incurable case. Sold by druggists, or by mail, 70 cents. Pamphlet free. Address: Dr. J. C. SAGE, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

TO THE PUBLIC.

ALL KINDS OF WORK, SEWING, Washing and Ironing, &c., done by Mrs. Burnett on short notice and on reasonable terms. All orders left at the house, south-west part of Dallas, will be immediately attended to.

The Great Medical Discovery!
Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

They are a Gentle Preparation well adapted for the treatment of all cases of Indigestion, Biliousness, and all the Disorders of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels.

They are a Gentle Preparation well adapted for the treatment of all cases of Indigestion, Biliousness, and all the Disorders of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels.

They are a Gentle Preparation well adapted for the treatment of all cases of Indigestion, Biliousness, and all the Disorders of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels.

They are a Gentle Preparation well adapted for the treatment of all cases of Indigestion, Biliousness, and all the Disorders of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels.

They are a Gentle Preparation well adapted for the treatment of all cases of Indigestion, Biliousness, and all